

Security

The Security Department serves as “watchman” who assists in the overall safety and protection of the ministry and its members both inside and outside of the building. They are responsible for patrolling the grounds, serving as parking attendants and securing necessary areas.